Dear Primetime Express Customer,

RE: COVID-19 Lockdown

Transport, logistics & delivery services of food, basic goods and medical supplies will remain open during the lockdown.

Primetime Express will therefore only be allowed to collect and deliver basic goods and medical supplies.

We are waiting for Government to publish a full list of categories of businesses that may remain open during the lockdown. We will send a second notice out then.

We will not fall foul of the restrictions put in place by President Ramaphosa.

Should you require our services for the transport of critical items we will need a letter on your company letterhead stating that your product is exempt & that PTE Logistics (Pty) Ltd is your direct supplier. We will also need a copy of your licence to manufacture or distribute the product/(s) from the South African Government.

Please will you inform us of your courier requirements over this lockdown period. You can email your representative or the Customer Services Department.

Yours faithfully,

Margaret Kloppers
